We told you that my birthday is the same day as Elvis and her birthday is the same as the anniversary of his death. You probably don't remember us, but we certainly remember you. Keep on keeping the King alive in our hearts. Sue

I wish some day that you would see me in a different way, as a woman, not a baby. I don't care if people say I am crazy, I cant help myself. I have a boy friend and have had the same one for 3 years, but I cant stop thinking about you. Your music is great, hope to see you some time in concert. I have heard from others that there is no one like you on stage. Your newest fan Betty Sorry to carry on like I did, but wanted to let you know how handsome you are. Just like ELVIS

I met John a few weeks ago and recently saw " Flaming Star" for the first time. I've always loved Elvis and John is just like him. Same striking features in the face and body. Happy New Year John, may all your dreams for this year come true. Your friend Allison P.S. My husband feels the same as I do about you.

Comments We were stranded with a flat On 95 yesterday evening, me and my three kids. One infant 6 months and a 3 and 5 year old. Ice and snow made the roads impossible and then the flat. We were shocked with a car pulled up behind us and out stepped Elvis. You offered to change our tire, and you did. I offered to pay you, but you said no charge. I have always loved Elvis and he sent you. You were our angel, thank you for helping us. You looked so much like him and were so kind to us. The Christmas spirit is with us still, you didn't need to stop, but you did. We will always be grateful to you for helping us out of a terrible situation. I have asked God to bless you, and be with you during this holiday season and beyond. With much gratitude. Linda Comments I wish to thank all of Elvis's fans who come out to my shows. I am very humbled by your notes on my guestbook. Many of you have attended every show I have had, you inspire me and motivate me. I deeply appreciate your support and caring through all of the years. Elvis was the greatest singer and entertainer that the world has ever known. Elvis fans are the best. With sincere appreciation for your ongoing support. John W. Fix P.S. Please pray for Fred Thomas Martin Jr (Charlie) in our shows he needs our prayers, he is very ill. Fred has been there for all of you and me. His help and support throughout the years has added so much to our shows. Thank you Fred for always being there and being a great friend.

Comments John (Elvis) is what I would like to call you. My wife and I had never seen your show before. Your class was truly a southern gentleman, by the way you interacted with your audience. Love you way you made fun of yourself, just like Elvis used to do on stage on many occassions. Mary was really sweet to us as we arrived late for the show. We saw Elvis numerous times on stage (used to follow him everywhere he performed) probably a dozen times. Enjoyed all of his performances, just as we enjoyed yours. Keep it up my friend, he would be proud. Not sure many in the audience understood, you were performing the real Elvis. Let us know when you have another show in the area. Ricy and Lucy.

My wife almost came off of her chair when you walked on stage. Had to hold her down. We both agree you have it all, stage presence, looks and voice. We went to Elvis's last concert, and have been Elvis fans all of our lives. Keep on Keeping on, Elvis lives in our hearts, but you bring him alive again. Your newest fans Eddie and Nicki

John I know you praised everyone else, but I knew Elvis very well and when you mentioned Rick Stanley and his brother and Charlie I knew them all very well also. Elvis would be so happy, you guys could really sing. TCB. Bob Comments Elvis Presley is my biggest Idol of all time. As a young child I use to set on the couch to watch/listen to his movies and music but also watch u John perform his music and dancing as a small child, remember I am only 4 years older then you, lol. You would always copy him, his singing and moves. So with that said, I just got back from Maryland seeing your show June 30, 2012 with two wonderful people n the world, Shirley Dunbar Cassidy and Candy Smith. Only things missing was the rest of our family John, they would have had such a great time and all of them so proud of you. I shook my bootie and other things and had loads of fun at the Elvis show, couldn't have had a better time anywhere else, well maybe a bit more if my sister Brenda were there, but that will be another trip, had to really hold back from getting on stage to dance like the girls did in the movies, people probably was wondering who was that woman by the stage dancing like that, the show was so good that it was hard to hold back but I did get a dozen of yellow Roses, a teddy bear, an autograph scarf from Elvis :aka John Fix, my handsome cousin. Big hugs and love go out to you John and I enjoyed all the performers tremendously, even Mario's 'Scratch my back' from the movie 'Paradise Hawaiian Style' 1966 year, also the meal and room were great, words can't describe the excitement seeing you perform that gets better and better and seeing my cousin Debbie and meeting your beautiful daughter Krisin. You gave back to my heart and soul the long lost happy memories as growing up close together as kids, meaning you and us kids watching Elvis movies, you singing and us girls dancing like the ones in the movies, I can still hear your voice at such a young age performing and us girls saying be quiet, we want to hear Elvis, but you never stopped and that is why you are where you are today. You are the best and I can't wait to see you again, love you my cousin John Fix and hope to see you again soon, sent with love your cousin Vickie Carroll Brogan

Comments Really enjoyed the show. You nailed the songs, especially the gospel. Just like Elvis. I knew Elvis in the 60's, spent much of my time in Memphis. You have the same attitude that he did. He tried to please people, but had a temper also, and you didn't want to make him upset. You have his intensity on stage. Hope people recognized that you are just like him on stage and in person. He would be proud of you and the others. Your new fan, Bobby

Comments Hi yes John has 5 sisters and I am next to the baby. I am his (BIG) Little sister . I am not the FAVORITE sister like Debbie is but I think I am next in line .At least I like to think that. HA ! HA! This was my first time going to one of his shows and yes I drove 7hrs. Let me tell you it was worth the drive to see THE HOT SEXY Charlie , John, Mario, Joey and Kavan. I have not been out without my children and Hubby in 18 years and I left them at home with no Electric from the storm. My husband Bo said just go and enjoy yourself. well let me tell you I enjoyed myself more than words can say. I was so proud of these 4 guys because they seem like Family. They are very proud of each other and have so much respect for each other. I know Elvis Presley would be very proud of these guys for being who they are and doing such a great job entertaining their Fans. It was so nice that our cousin Vickie Brogan , John's oldest daughter Kristin, John's FAVORITE sister Debbie and others were there to enjoy this with us. Now to my BIG BROTHER John I was and am so proud of you. I had the best time, I even forgot I had kids & hubby at home with no electric. HA !! HA!! All joking aside I was so proud to walk around and say I am John's sister. I would not of traded that evening in for a million bucks , maybe a million and one . No JUST JOKING you made my trip remember, special and priceless. I love you and am proud to call you my brother. love always, your baby sister, Candy

It was like seeing Elvis in the flesh& and I heard people talk in the audience about how much you look like Elvis. My husband and I have been to man Elvis shows, and no one compares with looks and chrisma. We saw Elvis in Concert in College Park years ago, and if we didn't know better, we would have said you could have stood on the stage next to him and been his twin. You are about the same age as he was when we saw him, at least you look his age when he performed. You sang for us Love Me Tender, and we got more joy out of hearing you sing then buying a new car. we will watch your website for shows. Cant wait to see you on stage. Comments	Met you in Ocean City, you are just beautiful inside and out. Have those dreamy eyes, blue, that look right into your soul. You looked so much like Elvis that I thought I would die. I had that same reaction when I saw him in concert in College Park, MD My knee's were weak and I could barely talk, I thought my heart would jump out of my chest, both with you and Elvis. You have to be related to him in someway. There is too much about you that was Elvis. I would have written on your website sooner, but have been busy. I was totally shocked when you said you were not doing shows anymore. Please, Please one more, so that I can see you on stage. I know that I would see Elvis, when you took the stage. Hope to see you sometime in Ocean City, as you know I live there year round. Glad to meet you, you made my day. Andrea

I was so impressed by your young looks and your charisma. You seemed to draw people to you, even not trying. I know some lucky girl already has your heart, but wow. What a lucky girl she is. Hope to see you in one of your shows sometime. I told my husband about you and he told me I was crazy, he said there was only one Elvis and no one looks like him. He said i must have been dreaming. I told him he was dead wrong. I met him in OC. Take care, hope to see you again. Watching your website for shows. Gail Graceland Plaza, on a hot summer day. You were so handsome I though Richard was going to get really mad when I had my picture taken with you, but he took it in stride. Of all the other ETA's there you were the orginal and looked the most like Elvis in his prime. We lived in Memphis during the 60's and saw him many times, you reminded us so much of him, thank you for taking the time to talk to us and let us hang out with you at the plaza. Hope to see you again, Maybe in January. Take care our friend. TCB Sarah and Richard.

Just your presence in the room makes the night so real, it is erie. We saw Elvis in concert many times, flew to many cities to see him perform and we have seen others try to be like him and perform like him, but no one compares to what we see in you. Comments Cant' believe we finally met the next real Elvis. We grew up in Memphis, and saw Elvis many times in Memphis, we used to hang out at the Jungle on Union Ave and other places on Union. Including the Memphian Theatre just off Union. Elvis used to rent the theatre late at night for he and his friends to enjoy a movie without all the fans around.

However on more than one occasion he invited us to come in and enjoy the movie with him. What a treat. He was so nice and you had all the refreshments that you wanted to have. Of course we were just teenagers and snacks were great. You remind us so much of him. Just the way you walk, talk, look, your eyes, those beautiful eyes, and the nice southern manners that made Elvis special. When the Elvis impersonators first came out we were appalled that anyone would impersonate him. But, we realized after we lost Elvis that these impersonators were trying to hang on to the memories that Elvis brought us and make the fans remember how special he was. We have seen many people sing Elvis songs. I guess they call them tribute artists now, but no one has the natural everyday appearance that is so much like Elvis as you. We saw you from a distance and didn't believe our eyes. When we met you, we were floored. My wife thought she was going to have a heart attack and both of our hearts were beating so fast. It was just like we were meeting him all over again. God must have had a plan and found the pattern he made Elvis with. You must be related in some way. You could not look more like Elvis. You said you had shows that the public can attend. We can't wait to see you perform. You have our number call us please, so that we can get tickets up front. Love your website and your singing voice. I was only lucky enough to see John perform live twice. He was astounding...magical...He held me captive of his talent. What's above his indisputable talent is the man that he is--outstanding. I feel fortunate to not only be the beneficiary of his talent but also that my life was personally enriched by having known him.

I read you guest book for about a hour, I can tell others think the same thing. So I'm not crazy. You never cease to amaze me when you are on stage. You never get the same old performance, all of yours are unique and from the heart. Can't wait for the next show. Lydia and Calvin

We miss you. Thought you would be in Memphis this year. Just wanted to let you know things are not the same without you here. Hope you are well. You are the most like Elvis we have ever seen, and believe me during Elvis week you see everything. Some of it is an insult to Elvis's name. We are true Elvis fans and loved Elvis with all our hearts, but you are so much like him, it's uncanny, You were so kind to us while we talked to you. Hopefully we will get to see you again. We met the last time you were in Memphis and we both never forgot you. You have that way about you, you are unforgettable. Please sing at the tent this year, and we are sitting here and no one compares. Your Friends Bob and Linda

You were the most humble respectful person when you walked in to check in . You blew our minds, we have seen a lot of guys who think they are Elvis. You did not pretend to be Elvis. I asked you if you were Elvis, you laughed and said Honey he had money, I don't have any. No matter what you said, we thought you were Elvis, the way we think he would be. If you notice when you checked out I didn't charge you for your room. Just us Girls. Jessie

Comments Hi John, I met you the other day in Frederick. I couldn't believe my eyes when I first saw you. You reminded me so much of Elvis. I know people must say the same thing everytime they meet you, but I really was taken back. I knew Elvis. I met him in the 50's when I was staying with a relative for the summer. He was so nice just like you. I remember his eyes, they were just like yours, piercing and beautiful. You felt like he was looking in your soul when he talked to you. You made my day, and I will remember the other day for a long time. Felt like I was back in Memphis talking to Elvis again. I know you have a great career ahead of you. Just by being you. Yours, Sandy. Love your music too. Keep keeping his memory alive.

Comments We met you the other day in Frederick. We were so impressed when we saw you. We both said to each other at the same time. It's Elvis! While we were talking to you, It was if we were talking to our old friend again. We both lived in Memphis in the 50's and knew Elvis. He was bigger than life in Memphis in the 50's and could go almost everywhere, until he became famous. While we were talking to you, I noticed other people looking to. I don't know how you can go anywhere, looking like you do and not get attention. It must be hard on you to go out in public. Thanks for being so nice to us, it brought back a lot of Memories for you. Wish he was still with us. But, you represent him well. Good luck in your career. You will go far. Sincerely, Nancy and Jeff

Comments I don't know if you remember me, but I was the crazy lady in the black mercedes that pulled along side of you while you were jogging the other day. I can't believe I even had nerve to do that, but you blew me away. Although it was raining you were kind enough to stop jogging and talk to me. Remember, I told you, how much you looked like Elvis? Well, I didn't tell you why I thought you looked like Elvis, when I was 8 in 1970 and living in California, my parents lived near Elvis's house and were good friends with Elvis. When I met him, even though I was only 8, I was in love, and it continues to this day. He made such an impression on me, that it has stuck with me all my life. I never liked Elvis impersonators and would never go to any shows, because there was never anyone like Elvis. But since you gave me your website, I thought I would write you and tell you that when you have a show, I will be there. I'd follow you across the country to see you perform. Imagine when I saw you, I couldn't believe my eyes. I thought I was seeing his twin. You were so kind to stop and spend some time, even for a short time talking to me. Just like he did. I have e-mailed all my friends and told them I met Elvis again. They of course think, I am nuts. But, I don't care, I did meet Elvis again. I am going to travel that same road, every morning to see if I see you again. If a black car pulls along side you, I'm not dangerous, just amazed. P.S. Love your music on your site. Your new fan, Lisa

Comments This is the first time I have signed your guest book, although I have been a admirer and fan for a long time. I knew Elvis a long time ago, but it really seems like yesterday. Elvis was very special to me and his memory is very special. I just want to tell you, I have seen you in concerts, and no one has the charisma and draw that you have. You have brought tears to my eyes on several occassions at concerts and remind me so much of
E. Please keep up representing Elvis the way that you do. You are a natural in voice, movements and power in your voice that is God given, no one can duplicate your God given talent. I believe that you and Elvis would have hung out together at Graceland and had a ball together, but I also believe that you and him would have challenged each other in music and other things. Take care my friend. Linda

Comments Hi John I can't believe thats the 1st time I've been on your site as much as I have been crazy about Elvis all my life. I was able to see him twice, once in MD and once in Las Vegas at the Hilton. I remember as a child the 1st. 3 records my mother gave me at Xmas of Elvis they were Don't be Cruel, Jailhouse Rock & Anyway you Want Be .I wore them out & drove my mother crazy. That was in the 50's (ooppss gave my age away). You do resemble him in your photos I listen to the music and you sound a lot like him. I told Joe B to let me know when you give amother public event I would like to see you perform. Have a great day.

You have a natural talent that someone cannot duplicate. That is what makes you unique. Although don't get me wrong. You are just like Elvis in so many ways, looks, charisma, voice, and just the way you present yourself to the audience. But you are unique in your own way. Just doing what comes naturally to you. Every show is different, thats the reason I love to go to your shows. Hope you have a good week. Your admirer, Linda.

I saw you perform in New York, years ago and have been a fan ever since. You are the absolute best not only performing as Elvis, but a terrific entertainer in your own right. You could win any contest hands down, but I know you told me you don't enter contests. I hope to see you soon at your next show. Keep up representing the KING with the respect that you show him at every show. You and Elvis would have been great friends. No competition just enjoying each others company. Sincerely Trulia

Comments Hello John, I can't wait to see you perform again. You are the best Elvis I have ever seen. I've seen a lot and most of them just don't cut it. I have a very critical eye and have studied Elvis and listened to Elvis all my life. You imulate Elvis in your every being. Your looks, voice, moves, and most of all your interaction with the audience. You have that ability to draw people into your songs, Very few entertainers have that ability and you are one of them. Like Elvis was. I'd follow you anywhere you perform. Your newest devoted fan, Laura Comments Your the best. I came from Connecticut to see you perform, my friend had told me about you. Everything she had said about you was true. I never saw anyone like you. You have that unique Elvis look and your voice and attitude is the same as Elvis was. I saw him in concert, and if I hadnt know better I would have believed. I loved your first set, but I was blown away with your second set. Thanks for putting us in the Christmas mood, by the songs that you sang. Your daughter is just too cute. Hope you and your family have a wonderful Thanksgiving. I'm on your mailing list now, I plan to come to future shows.

Comments M eet you at the Rusty Rudder in Dewey this weekend. You are ELVIS. Of all of the tribute artist there, you were the only one who has Elvis's looks and mannerisms. You look so much like the young Elvis in his prime. 60's that it is uncanty. I had to hold my wife to her chair when you walked in. But thanks for allowing us to take a picture with you. I know you were swamped with people wanted to be near you and get your picture, but you were so nice to all, just like Elvis would have been to his fans. You represent him well. He would be proud. I'm sure you and he would have been friends. Thanks for keeping the memory alive for Elvis fans. Sincerely, Sara and Jeff. We are going to try to come to the show on November 8th.

Comments Hi John, I just happened to be on vacation in Dewey Beach and stopped by the Rusty Rudder last night. I thought I was seeing Elvis when I saw you at the Rudder. I have been to many shows of tribute artists and have been to Legends in Concert and Las Vegas Concerts, but I have never seen the crowd and fans go nuts as they did over you. You know how to draw people in. I wouldn't have believed that any one besides Elvis could have that effect on the audience at a Elvis show. I was sad that you weren't performing, but someone told me you didn't enter contests. You don't need to, you just need to be where people can see you. I got a card about the show, I am trying to see if I can get someone to come down with me. Take care, Hope to see you in November.
Sincerely, Linda.

Comments John, I'm always amazed when someone tells me to look at someones website. But I can honestly say I have enjoyed reading all the entries on your website. People who really knew Elvis have made comments about you and since I met you, I can understand why they see you like they do. You are not the imitator that many are, you are the real deal, in everyday life. Keep representing him like you do. You would have been friends had you lived in his era. It was good to meet you the other day, hope to see you again real soon at a show. Keep singing his songs. Sincerely, Michael Comments Hey John, Thanks for being such a gentleman last week in Virginia. I'm sorry if I kept looking at you, but I never saw anyone who looked so much and reminded me so much of Elvis. Having car trouble is horrible, but thanks for helping me. I would have never got home if you hadn't helped. You said pass the favor on and believe me I will, but I will tell them that the closest thing to Elvis saved the day for me. God Bless you for your kindness to me. Sincerely Porcia, P.S. By the way love your music on your site.

Comments I knew Elvis in the 50's in Memphis, I lived around the corner from him. Played football in the park with him. This was before he was well known in Memphis and elsewhere. Just a nice polite southern boy. I have another friend who knew Elvis and has met you and thinks you are so much like Elvis, he can't believe it. I will be in Memphis during Elvis week, just visiting family and friends. If you are at Graceland during the week, I would love to meet you. He gave me a picture of you, so I know that I will recognize you. I just have to see for myself, if what he says is true. Hopefully I will see you in August.
Sincerely, Paul (AKA Doc)

Comments Hope to see you again in Memphis this year. We will be there during Elvis week and will look for you at the tent. We really enjoyed talking to you last year and will bring out pictures of you that we took, they were great. You are so personable and nice to everyone. It is a pleasure to meet an ETA who doesn't think he is it, and has time to talk to others and spend time making memories for others at Elvis Week. See you soon, we hope. Linda and Craig.

Comments I never leave messages on guestbooks. I have been meaning to write you and tell you I still can see your face in my mind. You look just like Elvis, I was floored when I first saw you. It has been a while, but I saw you at the show a couple of months ago in Virginia. You were so kind to take pictures with all of us and so nice to all. I would love to come to one of your shows. I asked around the show and some people knew you, so that is how I got your website information. Great Site. Have a great day, you made my day the evening that I met you. Sincerely, Ann

Hey John, You don't know me, but I have been watching your website for a couple of years. Attending a couple of your shows. How about some more music on the site. I am sad to see that your CD is sold out, guess I waited to long to order it. Hope you order more. You are not only a terrific looking Elvis, but such a nice person with a great, great voice. Powerful and soul wrenching, same power that Elvis had. It comes from within, no one can understand unless you are the person delivering the song. Take care, Have a nice summer. Looking foward to your next show. Juanita

Comments	Your voice makes my heart sing. You bring back so many memories of when I was young and got to see Elvis in College Park with my mother and father. I will never forget that night there was pure magic in his voice. Just like your voice, you have that certain something in your singing voice and speaking voice that takes me back to those days long ago. The first show I saw you do was at the Marriott in Bethesda, you looked so much like the young Elvis, I thought I would faint, when you came on stage. Over the years you have become the one I think about when people talk about Elvis. You and Elvis would have been great friends. So much alike. You are the bomb, as we used to say. Love your music, keep giving us the memories. From Tina on 3/31/2008

Comments Dear John, I met you last year in Memphis, I am now 78 years old, and I don't follow the Memphis goings on during Elvis week. I'm not much for writing letters, much less writing on someones website, but I just ran across your name in my wallet, and it brought back to me where and when I met you. I looked through your entire guestbook and a lot of people are very impressed with you. I don't talk about this much and I don't tell many people that I grew up in Elvis's hay day when he first started up in the music field. I got to meet and talk to him on several occasions. That was when Memphis was a smaller and friendly city and everyone knew everyone. My friend Mark introduced me to Elvis at a Gas station on Union Ave. He had gone to Humes with him. I think it was in 1961 or 62 that I met him. He looked just like you did when I met you. I did a double take when I saw you at Graceland. I took a couple of pictures of you and like everyone else I just got them developed, and I've showed them to my friend. He was astonished, at the picture. I'd like you to meet him if you are in Memphis this year. I want him to tell me what he thinks. Or if I'm crazy. I'll look for you during Elvis week 2008. It was a pleasure meeting you, you are a true gentleman like Elvis was. Putting up with people like me taking pictures and pestering you. We will look for you on Aug 14th at Graceland in the afternoon. Regards Larry Comments I had never been to one of your shows till last Saturday. I have followed Elvis Tribute Artists ever since Elvis's death in 1977, but I can honestly say I have never seen someone with so much intensity and power in his body. Your deliverance of songs is outstanding. I lived in Memphis in the late 50's and I met Elvis at the Jungle one night(that was a famous drive in Hang out) for people in Memphis. You knew when he walked into a place that he was there, and I felt that same power when you came from behind the curtain. I think the audience was not prepared to hear the real Elvis, but they did that night, even though some of them did not recognize the talent that you possess. If they didn't get it, shame on them. You are the best. The others were good too, especially Mario. But the natural ability to perform and deliver the true essence was delivered by you. Good luck in the future. I look forward to seeing you again at future shows.

Comments Wow, what raw talent. Reminded me so much of Elvis in the 68 Comeback. You were terrific. The only thing missing was the black leather. The whole evening was wonderful. Everything was done with such class. The room looked beautiful and you were great. Mario and Kavan were wonderful too. When you walked out on stage, your resemblance of Elvis was un believable. Loved your outfit and of course when you sang and moved in it. WOW. You have such a repore with the audience, like Elvis had. Not every performer can draw people into the show, it takes extra talent that cant be learned by practice. Its natural. Cant wait for your next show. Your newest fan, Terry.

But, you have that natural ability to make all of us who come to your shows feel a part of a family, and you bring back lots of memories of Elvis when he was in his prime. Comments	John, I went to your concert last year and I was so blown away. You have that same charisma with the audience that Elvis had. I personally know a lot of tribute artists and you stand way above them all, but your more than that, I see something in you that others don't have and that is genuine god given talent. A tribute artist can learn the skill of being a tribute artist, but it has to be inside them to really make an impact on the audience, and you do that. Not only in looks, voice but the way you interact with the audience. I plan to come to all the shows you do. I enjoyed the last one so much. I have been a fan of the king for many years and was lucky enough to see him in College Park when I was young. You have a beautiful voice, when you sing it brings back so many memories of Elvis. Your moves, just the way you conduct yourself on and off stage. I was lucky enough to see him perform in College Park, and you alone brought back those memories to me. You are awesome, a wonderful entertainer. I want to come to the show in January. I am on your mailing list now. Looking forward to seeing you again, there was so many people around you during intermission I didnt get my picture taken with you, but I will next time. And John, thank you for giving your testimony of your faith in Jesus. So long as you continue to give Him the honor and the glory, as well as singing some of that Gospel music, your journey and work will be blessed. What a beatiful person you are. When you opened the show, I thought I would die. You have the essence of Elvis in one package. It was just like watching the King perform. I saw Elvis several times in concert in the early 60's and then again early 70's. I have never seen any tribute artists give such a profound performance. It was all there, the looks, the voice, the talking. You are a great, great entertainer. I am so impressed. You should be performing in Vegas or Branson. You would really make everyone think, Elvis has returned. I loved the show. I don't know what else to say. Except I am 100% a new fan for you. You are the best. Elvis's spirt is alive in you. Elvis would have been so impressed with your performance. He would have thought, he is my twin. I like the fact you brought up Jesus several times in the show. I am a born again believer. Your terrific. Have a great Thanksgiving and Christmas. You just made my year with your singing. Your fan,Carrie

I grew up in Memphis, but I don't live there any more. I got to see Elvis many times at different places in the south, in the early years, and there is that certain something with you, that he had, the look of pain, drive, looks, voice and charisma all rolled into one human being. Elvis had it all and left us too early. Stay humble, like you were when I met you this year in Memphis, you were kind to everyone that approached you, but like Elvis sometimes you just want to be with your thoughts, but remember you are only one man, but you too can change the world for the better, the way you present yourself to your fans, friends, and the world. Elvis had many faults, as we all do, but he always rose above them, with his gift to the world. We will never forget Elvis, as I won't forget you. Hope to see you next year. Your newest fan, Ruth P.S. Elvis loved God above all. He is in heaven watching, and he would be pleased.

Comments We were thrilled to meet you on Saturday during Elvis week. What a great way to end a perfect week with so many people who still love Elvis. We seen you outside the Elvis After Dark exhibit and I told my husband I have to meet that good looking guy. You look so much like Elvis and you really really make me think of him. I am having Elvis with drawals and find myself play my Elvis music nonstop! I hope to see you perform someday. Thank you for the picture, your kindness and the conversation! Till we meet again Love L & E from Colorado.

You were with Mary and I was with my sister. I love you and think you are great. I will be at Salute To The King in Gaithersburg.

Comments I cant believe Elvis Week 2007 is over. But, I know one thing, I will hold you in my heart forever. I have never met anyone like you. I was so astonished to see you at Graceland. It was like Elvis had returned. Just your presence sent cold chills through me. You seemed so relaxed and the fans were going crazy for you. I stood in a line to get my picture taken with you. When you put your arm on my shoulder to poise for the picture, I though I would die right there. I wish I could have heard you sing. You have the whole package. Hope to see you in Iowa someday. Meanwhile I will look for you in Memphis hopefully next year 2008. I know your TCB. Fondly Maria Comments Wow, I have never met someone like you. You caught my eye at Graceland. You are the Ultimate, I don't care who won the contests. You are the best tribute artist I have ever seen. You are a natural, no fake sideburns, makeup and jumpsuits. In street clothes you look more like E than anyone else. Also, you have the manners of the King. I met him in Memphis years ago, and you have those same manners and your eyes are so beautiful. Although I seem to be one of the Elvis chasers, I am not. I didnt walk up to anyone else, because no one impressed me like you. Keep representing Elvis the way you do. He would be proud. Your new fan. Claudia. P.S. Hope to see you next year. I will never forget your spirit and caring with all those who wanted to take pictures of you. Good meeting Mary too.

I was at Elvis last concert in college park years ago and I felt his presence before he came on stage. That is the same feeling I had before you walked in that door. It is strange, how this much later, that feeling is still there. Stayed to hear you singing although we had already finished eating. There was rumors that you might sing. West Memphis, You are the best. I live in Memphis and I have seen a lot of tribute artists, but you are so much like the King, just the way you talk, look, walk, and especially the way you sing. My heart pounded when you " My Way". I was remembering all the things I loved about Elvis and you brought all those feelings back to me. I grew up in Memphis in the 60's. I am so thankful that my friend invited me to come to the event. You should stay in Memphis so everyone could see you. I know you draw fans, cause I couldnt get within 40 feet from you. What a show Saturday. You are the best. You kept the show going and going and going. You are a wonderful entertainer on stage. Just your moves makes my heart flutter. When you came on stage in the begining of the show, my heart stopped. I thought WOW what a hunk of man, but your talent to entertain us is what really impressed me. I've been to other shows elsewhere, but the energy that you brought to that stage on Saturday, made the show. It was like Elvis's spirit was there, blessing your every move. Elvis would have been proud of you the way you represented him, with the kind words about him. You are extremely professional. and the way you treated the little boy who came to the stage to sing, by giving him $10.00 dollars, there never was a moment in time so special, you made his day. No one would have ever do that. You can tell you really love children. You made my day and those around me special too. You have Elvis's spirit within you and it is only evident when you are on stage. Hope to see you at Salute to the King in November. I won't miss it. You are a very special man. I see you are going to Memphis soon. They will know it when you are there, you remind me so much of the King and how he treated his fellow man. Sincerely, Linda

Dear John, You are fantastic!! Not just because you look and sound like Elvis, but because you have the real spirit of Elvis inside your soul. Because as you know Elvis was more than just the looks, voice and moves. Elvis was REAL, unique in every way. An ORIGINAL, forever. You are giving that to the people every time you mention Elvis. You speak about the real person, the person who loved the less fortunate. You speak about Elvis' manners and his love for his mother (he loved Vernon just as much). You talk about the humble people he touched in every tip of the WORLD. How does that happen??? People need to know because there are people who have Elvis inside, the Lord placed him in us. Elvis connects us to the Lord in every way. I would be grateful if I can be placed on your data base regarding you and anything you do... I would really love to just talk to you about Elvis. I've been studying Elvis for over thirty years. The PERSON!! and before that I just loved Elvis growing up. My sister and I stayed up school nights just to catch one of his movies... any of the. Elvis hated every one of them) His incredible talent shines through anyway, as it always did and continues to this day. When Elvis passed there has been a never ending quest to see inside the MAN ever since. THE TRIBUTE SHOW IS AWESOME!! WITHOUT YOU THE SHOW WOULDN'T FEEL THE SAME. JUST THE FACT THAT YOU ARE THERE IS VERY COMFORTING (INCARNATE). THE PERFORMERS WERE GREAT BUT YOU ARE SPECIAL. THANK YOU, THANK YOU!! THANK YOU!! RESPECTFULLY, STUART

Comments I just found your name again, I was one of the people who was at the Baptist Church in Baltimore several months ago when Rick Stanley (Elvis's step brother)came to preach during a revival. I have never witnessed the power that you brought to that church along with Rick Stanley, Mr Stanleys eyes never left you before the service. Sorry if we interupted you by asking to take pictures with you. The Church was probably not the place to do that, but I also saw and heard Rick Stanley come to the pulpit and say, " I have never done this before, but I have to and want to come down and shake the hand of the young man in the front row. Quote" "He reminds me so much of my brother Elvis, I watched him before the service, and also say quote " If didnt know better, I'd believe it was him". I witnessed a miracle that evening when 12 people came to know the Lord, and I felt the spirit of God and Elvis shine on that Church that evening. I've been wanting to write you and tell you just how I felt when I saw you. I felt Elvis had returned in you. I know also you believe in the Lord, by your well worn bible. Any way just wanted to tell you you made our night by attending. P.S. I have the picture I took of you. I'll keep in always. Sonya

Comments John, Enjoyed meeting you at the show last week. Too bad you had to leave early. I kept wishing you were going to sing too. Everyone said you looked just like the younger Elvis, in the 60's, when he was in his prime, and believe me you look like you are in your prime. You have that sultry, sexy look that Elvis did. I loved your music on your website. I would love to come to one of your shows, I will look on your website often. Sincerely,

Brenda

You had some very kind words to say about Johnny Seaton and I can confirm them having grown up with him. Enjoy your family and hopefully we'll get you back there for some casual entertainment and fun again. Regards, WalterB

Comments You are amazing. So much like E. You have his same sound in your voice. It is something that only was heard when Elvis sang. I should know. I was lucky enough to hear him in concert serveral times. I have never heard you speak, but I'll bet you have that same southern voice that he had. Amazing. Just Amazing. God must have sent you to us. I'd love to hear you sometime in concert. Hope you let your fans know on your website. Hope this year treats you well. Much success in the future. Thanks, Laura.

Hope you enter the contest that Graceland is putting on in August, I know that you would win, with your looks and voice. Amazing what power in your voice, just like Elvis. You have that certain twang in your voice that he had. No one has that tone that I have heard. Would love to see you in Memphis. Think about it. This is the 30th year. Have a terrific Holiday Season. You just have that certain something that makes people want to come alive and shout to the rooftops. Especially since you look so much like Elvis. You have the same stage presence that he did. The same statue and body as he did in the 60's. I saw him in concert once and I can honestly say you remind me so much of him. Just the way you talk and the way you carry yourself. I have never seen anyone look so much like Elvis, but even if you didn't you are really something else. You seem so nice to everyone. Very polite, like Elvis was. You took time to speak to people when they spoke to you. That is a nice trait that many entertainers do not have. Loved the show. You said this is was the last Salute in this format. I hope it means there will be more shows in the future, under a different format. I love gospel, Hope it is a gospel show. I'd love to see more of you. You gained a fan on Saturday night. Wish I had hundreds of dollars to give you for your documentary, I would give it to you. You have what it takes to be a star just like Elvis. God Bless you. Sandy

We saw Elvis in College Park and you have that same look, voice and charm that he did. When he entered the room, everyone knew it. I had to remind my wife she was with me. We came to the show on Friday night. The person I was sitting next to said that was you singing when we walked into the room. I thought it was Elvis. I have never seen anyone with the same build as Elvis had in the 60's but you have it. Would love to come to another one of your shows. We both enjoyed it so much. Your fans, Randy and Evelyn. P.S. Comments WOW, What a man. I have never seen any one as handsome as you are. When you walked on stage, I though I would faint. The others with me, went nuts. I was one of the fortunate few to see Elvis when he performed in Maryland. All I can say is if you are not related to Elvis in some way. There is something strange. You have the same energy and natural charm that he had. That is a gift from God. He must have taken the mold when he made Elvis and given parts of Elvis to you. The way you interact with the audience is just like he did. Brought back a lot of memories. Your voice still rings in my head. I read the program and yes I agree what Rick Stanley said about you. You do remind me of his brother (Elvis). I hope this is not the last Salute. If not Salute, why not another show, starring just you? The person I was sitting with said you sing Gospel music, and they love your music. Could you do a gospel show? There is a lot of Christian people who would love you. You show Gods spirit. Thanks for lifting his name several times during the show. This was my first show, I attended. I will come back. I came from NJ to see you. Love from your # 1 fan. I looked at your other messages. I went to your show in July and you gave an outstanding performance. You were terrific, both in looks and voice. Better than Irv Cass, Doug Church, and the others who always perform in Memphis. Your gospel music is out of this world and you put your heart in it, I can tell. You are unlike others because your voice, your looks on and off stage is genuine not a learned art. I hope what I heard you say at the show is not true and you will continue to sing for us and show the spirit of Elvis and carry on his music. Especially gospel music. Your fan forever Elise

Comments John, I have seen you perform on several occasions and I can honestly say you say Elvis in your moves, looks and voice. So authentic. I know from what others have said about you, that what you do on stage is you. Not an imitation as some tribute artists try to perform as. You are yourself on and off stage. I watched you very closely Friday night and you were a gentleman and kind on and off stage. It shows you care deeply about people and your fans. I heard from a friend that Saturday night you were just as wonderful. I hope you reconsider your decision, we love you and don't want to lose your performances. They have been wonderful. You have brought back many memories of the King. I watch Elvis movies and I have seen them all, you could have been him in the movies. Although there is only one King (Elvis) you are his double. Good luck and best wishes in anything you choose. Let us know what you are doing on your web site. I'll keep watching. Sincerely, Linda Comments I don't think you know what a void you are leaving in the shows. You were the one I always came to see, although I have enjoyed the other performers. But you are a true natural entertainer, and belong on stage even if you do Mickey Mouse. I came to show Saturday night and you were the absolute best. I enjoyed Mario also, but you say Elvis with your moves, looks and voice. Please reconsider your decision that you have made. You are breaking a lot of hearts, including mine. I wish I had signed your poster in the lobby, but I had friends with me that had to leave. Hope to see you again someone.

Warm regards and admiration. Donna

I came to the show Friday night and I was shocked to hear you are not going to perform as Elvis anymore. It was the first time at your shows and I have never seen anyone with an image so close to the king. Your voice is amazing, just like Elvis's. I enjoyed the whole show immensely but you were the one perform in the show that stood out and represented Elvis to me. Good luck in your future, but I hope you change your mind. How about some Casinos? They would love you. When you walked into the room by heart went wild. I thought I was seeing the King again. God Bless you. Loved your Gospel song Run On.

Hi John, I took some pictures of you when you were not looking in the lobby of the hotel. You look fantastic. I have never seen anyone look so much like Elvis, but even if you didn't you are really something else. You seem so nice to everyone. Very polite, like Elvis was. You took time to speak to people when they spoke to you. That is a nice trait that many entertainers do not have. Loved the show. You said this is was the last Salute in this format. I hope it means there will be more shows in the future, under a different format. I love gospel, Hope it is a gospel show. I'd love to see more of you. You gained a fan on Saturday night. Wish I had hundreds of dollars to give you for your documentary, I would give it to you. You have what it takes to be a star just like Elvis. God Bless you. Sandy

I don't see many men signing your guest book. But, here I am. When you first walked on stage, I look at my wife and we both said at the same time. He looks just like Elvis. We saw Elvis in College Park and you have that same look, voice and charm that he did. When he entered the room, everyone knew it. I had to remind my wife she was with me. We came to the show on Friday night. The person I was sitting next to said that was you singing when we walked into the room. I thought it was Elvis. I have never seen anyone with the same build as Elvis had in the 60's but you have it. Would love to come to another one of your shows. We both enjoyed it so much. Your fans, Randy and Evelyn. P.S. All she has talked about since we got home was you.

Comments WOW, What a man. I have never seen any one as handsome as you are. When you walked on stage, I though I would faint. The others with me, went nuts. I was one of the fortunate few to see Elvis when he performed in Maryland. All I can say is if you are not related to Elvis in some way. There is something strange. You have the same energy and natural charm that he had. That is a gift from God. He must have taken the mold when he made Elvis and given parts of Elvis to you. The way you interact with the audience is just like he did. Brought back a lot of memories. Your voice still rings in my head. I read the program and yes I agree what Rick Stanley said about you. You do remind me of his brother (Elvis). I hope this is not the last Salute. If not Salute, why not another show, starring just you? The person I was sitting with said you sing Gospel music, and they love your music. Could you do a gospel show? There is a lot of Christian people who would love you. You show Gods spirit. Thanks for lifting his name several times during the show. This was my first show, I attended. I will come back. I came from NJ to see you. Love from your # 1 fan. I looked at your other messages. I saw many with # 1 fan and I am one of them. Keep up the shows. I would have paid $150 dollars to see this show.

I tried to even watch you when you were standing waiting to go back on stage. What a profile. I watched you even when others were performing. You can really dance also. So much energy. You should be in Vegas. Have you ever thought of going overseas to perform. They havent seen anyone like you. Great job as the Host. I am so sad that Salute is ending. Please reconsider. Your show is the very best. Hope this is not the end to shows. We need to see more, with you performing. Please do another show. With one performer. YOU. Your fan. This was my second show attending. You are the best tribute artist I have ever seen, and I've seen a lot of them. I go to Memphis every year and there is a lot of them around town during Elvis Week. I went to your show in July and you gave an outstanding performance. You were terrific, both in looks and voice. Better than Irv Cass, Doug Church, and the others who always perform in Memphis. Your gospel music is out of this world and you put your heart in it, I can tell.

You are unlike others because your voice, your looks on and off stage is genuine not a learned art. I hope what I heard you say at the show is not true and you will continue to sing for us and show the spirit of Elvis and carry on his music. Especially gospel music. Your fan forever Elise

I don't think you know what a void you are leaving in the shows. You were the one I always came to see, although I have enjoyed the other performers. But you are a true natural entertainer, and belong on stage even if you do Mickey Mouse. I came to show Saturday night and you were the absolute best. I enjoyed Mario also, but you say Elvis with your moves, looks and voice. Please reconsider your decision that you have made. You are breaking a lot of hearts, including mine. I wish I had signed your poster in the lobby, but I had friends with me that had to leave. Hope to see you again someone. Warm regards and admiration. Donna

Comments I came to the show Friday night and I was shocked to hear you are not going to perform as Elvis anymore. It was the first time at your shows and I have never seen anyone with an image so close to the king. Your voice is amazing, just like Elvis's. I enjoyed the whole show immensely but you were the one perform in the show that stood out and represented Elvis to me. Good luck in your future, but I hope you change your mind. How about some Casinos? They would love you. When you walked into the room by heart went wild. I thought I was seeing the King again. God Bless you. Loved your Gospel song Run On.

Hi John, Met you at the Holiday Inn on August 19th. You have a powerful voice that says Elvis, both in your movements on stage and your interaction with your audience. Couldnt remember your website until I looked at the flyer from the show, or I would have signed sooner. LYou seem to be able to touch your audience just like Elvis did in his shows. It takes a special performer to do that. Keep up the memories for us with your performances.

Comments John looks great. I was wondering where John is from, in reading his bio, he works everywhere from Maryland thru NY and elsewhere. Could you let me know. Send us materials on John. We have a few live projects going on and its always exciting for us to have the opportunity to present new talent to our audiences. Thanks.

Comments John, Cant' wait for your August show. You make my heart beat fast every time you are on stage. I feel like I'm in the presence of the King. I was fortunate to go to 5 of Elvis's performances, and I've seen a lot of Tribute artists, but I can honestly say you are the very best performer I have ever seen. So authentic, every thing about you says Elvis. See you soon.

You are such a powerful performer. The whole package. Looks, Charisma, voice. You are the absolute best performer as Elvis as I have ever seen, I've even been to Vegas.
